

LETTER TO TRAINER'S STUDENTS (free membership)

Date

Dear Name of Student,

As a Trainer with the Association of Design Education, (insert Trainer name here) is pleased to tell you that, as a student of an approved 5- day training program, you are eligible for a free year of membership as a(n) (insert Associate or Professional)

The Association of Design Education offers a variety of exciting benefits and opportunities to meet your needs as you grow your business. A list of just some of these benefits includes:

1. A free business listing in the Find a Professional directory on our website.
2. Free monthly webinars hosted by industry leaders on a variety of topics of both a business and creative nature.
3. Free mentoring with one of our tenured Trainers or professional members.
4. Access to ready-to-go presentation materials for potential clients.
5. The ability to promote your business through ADE social media outlets, including newsletters, Facebook, and LinkedIn.
6. Use of ADE appellation and logo on all promotional materials, including your website.
7. Additional credentials in your chosen field.
8. Discounts on all Association of Design Education conferences and continuing education programs.
9. An invitation to join our members-only Facebook group where you can network with other members, solicit advice, and share your questions and concerns.

And best of all, you receive your first year free!

To complete your application process, simply go to the Association of Design Education website (www.associationofdesignededucation.com), click on the Membership link, then Join the ADE. Select the appropriate membership level and click Join Now. Once you do that, the application will be ready to be completed, along with the appropriate fee waiver. That's it!

Please feel free to contact me or the ADE directly with any questions you may have. You can reach us at 877-234-7701 or by emailing us at admin@associationofdesignededucation.com.